

Trends in Consumer Bankruptcy Filings: Leading Lawyers on Understanding the Current Bankruptcy Landscape, Navigating the Filing Process, and Educating Clients (Inside the Minds)

Trends in Consumer Bankruptcy Filings provides an authoritative, insiders perspective on advising clients in today's bankruptcy environment. Featuring experienced attorneys from around the country, this book guides the reader through the recent developments in the consumer bankruptcy arena, including how the current economy and the continuing effects of BAPCPA are impacting clients and cases. These top authors outline their strategies for interviewing clients effectively, determining a client's goals, filing a successful petition, and communicating with trustees. From innovative promotional strategies to internal best practices, they also reveal proven tips for developing a thriving consumer bankruptcy practice. Additionally, these leaders discuss how to approach cases from the perspective of the client, the attorney, and the trustee. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts on the keys to success within this ever-evolving field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1. Michael L. Detzky, Partner, Detzky & Hunter LLC - Current Challenges and Strategies for Chapters 7 and 13 2. David P. Leibowitz, Managing Member, Lakelaw - Advocacy in Consumer Bankruptcy Cases 3. Howard S.
