

12 YEAR OLD HARLOW WAS NAMED AFTER A MOVIE STAR...BUT HER LIFE IS FAR FROM A FAIRYTALE When his daughter abandons her family, retired cop Hank Howard must fight to keep his three grandchildren out of a system he's seen all too often from the other side. He suddenly finds himself battling the ghosts of his own past, and the looming health challenges of his future. Stepping up to help her increasingly forgetful grandpa, twelve-year-old Harlow must find a way to make things work...all the while holding out hope that letters to her missing mother will one day be answered. As unexpected danger arises from both surprising and familiar places, Harlow and Hank race against time to keep their family together. Through humor, sensitivity, and unexpected adventure, author Jim Owen provides a touching look at the dynamics of family that will resonate with all generations.
