

Your Post-Divorce Compass: Practical, Real-World Advice for the Newly Single

Your Post-Divorce Compass: Practical, Real-World Advice for the Newly Single is a comprehensive workbook designed to help someone who is recently divorced sort out everyday life issues like updating insurance beneficiaries, automating finances, and hiring the right financial advisors. Written by a family lawyer with over a decade of experience, this book complements the many excellent resources which exist for helping divorcees deal with their emotional and spiritual crises by methodically guiding the reader through a host of financial matters. The book's unique, one task per day mentality also empowers the reader by turning a complex mass of problems into a manageable group of tasks.
