

Nazi Propaganda Films: A History and Filmography

Hitler and the Nazis saturated their country with many types of propaganda to convince German citizens that the Nazi ideology was the only ideology. As Joseph Goebbels, who was in charge of propaganda for Nazi Germany, said, The essence of propaganda consists in winning people over to an idea so sincerely, so vitally, that in the end they succumb to it utterly and can never escape from it. One type of propaganda that the Nazis relied on heavily was cinematic. This work focuses primarily on Nazi propaganda feature films and feature-length documentaries made in Germany between 1933 and 1945 and released to the public. Some of them were Staatsauftragsfilme, films produced by order of and financed by the Third Reich. The films are arranged by subject and then alphabetically, and complete cast and production credits are provided for each. Short biographies of actors, directors, producers and other who were involved in the making of Nazi propaganda films are also provided.
