

Chopwell Story

This is the story of Lytle Feara family, starting in Sweden in AD 865 and crossing the globe. Several generations of Lytle Fearas had been loyal supporters of the British regime, but circumstances changed. Why was this? War crimes abound in this in-depth telling of the goings on within the Communist era involving American and British secrets. Eric Lytle Feara, the most up to date family member, is used as a pawn by all sides and is thwarted in every move he makes, not knowing who to trust.
