

Television Horror Movie Hosts: 68 Vampires, Mad Scientists and Other Denizens of the Late-Night Airwaves Examined and Interviewed

Midnight, 1954. A striking woman in a torn black dress slinks down a cobwebbed, candelabrad corridor. She stops, shrieks hysterically into the camera, then solemnly says, Good evening, I am Vampira. Her real name is Maila Nurmi and she was the first in a long line of television horror movie hosts, commonly seen on independent stations late-night grade Z offerings dressed as some zany ghoul or mad scientist. This book covers the major hosts in detail, along with styles and show themes. Merchandise tie-in and fan reactions are also chronicled. The appendices list film and record credits.
