

New Developments in Securities Litigation, 2012 ed.: Leading Lawyers on Adapting to Trends in Securities Litigation and Regulatory Enforcement (Inside the Minds)

New Developments in Securities Litigation provides an authoritative, insiders perspective on the impact of recent trends in securities law. Featuring partners from law firms around the nation, these experts guide the reader through key strategies for adjusting to a changing regulatory and judicial environment, including managing costs, working effectively with government agencies, and realistically assessing risk. From say on pay litigation to new whistleblower regulations, these top lawyers examine the latest decisions that will affect securities lawyers and their clients, and provide advice on responding to them. Additionally, these leaders discuss recent court cases, such as Janus Capital Group Inc. v. First Derivative Traders, and their impact on the climate of securities law and enforcement. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating an increasingly-scrutinized area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities. Chapters Include: 1. Daniel J. Brooks, Partner and Chair, Securities Litigation Practice Group, Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis LLP - Evolving Issues in Securities Litigation and Regulation 2.
