

New Developments in Evidentiary Law in New York, 2013 ed.: Leading Lawyers on Understanding Recent Cases and Trends in Evidentiary Law (Inside the Minds)

New Developments in Evidentiary Law in New York provides an authoritative, insiders perspective on the regulations governing the collection, preservation, and admissibility of evidence in New York State. Featuring top partners and chairs from around the state, this book discusses the latest trends in the practice area, including the use of social media in civil cases, discovery guidelines governing electronically stored information, and changes to the adverse interference instruction. These top lawyers also consider the impact of recent cases, such as Ahroner v. Israel Discount Bank of New York, VOOM HD Holdings LLC v. EchoStar Satellite LLC, and Ortega v. City of New York. In addition, these leaders discuss aspects of the federal rules of evidence, and how they intersect with the New York guidelines. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this ever-changing field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities. Chapters Include: 1. John M. Flannery, Partner, Wilson Elser Moskowitz Edelman & Dicker LLP - The Discoverability and Admissibility of Social Media in NY Civil Litigation 2. Mark A.
