

Gray Raiders, Green Seas (The Continuing Adventures of Rory Dunbrody, CSN & Tobias St. John, USN Book 2)

In Gray Raiders, Green Seas we learn more of Rory, Southern-born and Irish-raised; bold, irreverent, with his cynicism tempered by humor, and Tobias, born into slavery in the Caribbean; courageous, contemplative and careful not to expect too much from life. They overcome the bias of a few fellow officers by their courage and resourcefulness and experience assaults on coastal fortifications, a ride with Confederate cavalryman, John Mosby, the brilliant capture of a Confederate blockade runner, a daring rescue of a lost infantry company, and the pivotal Battle of Hampton Roads. The Critics say: Magically blends vivid characters, rollicking adventure and fascinating historical insights - Dennis Heck, Founding President, Television of Washington Evocative, meticulously-drawn and riveting story line. Must-read work of Civil War fiction! - Charles Fowler, President, Puget Sound Maritime Historical Association Exciting battle scenes made authentic with fantastic attention to detail! - The Bookmonger - in the Olympian Newspaper
