

Hildegard Withers: Uncollected Riddles (Crippen & Landau Lost Classics)

HILDEGARDE IS BACK! Hildegard Withers, the creation of Stuart Palmer (1905-1968), is the original schoolmarm detective. After she first appeared in The Penguin Pool Murder in 1931, she was so popular that a series of movies starring Edna Mae Oliver and James Gleason followed, and Palmer wrote short stories about Miss Withers for Mystery, a slick-paper magazine sold only in Woolworths stores between 1933 and 1935. These stories, filled with the sights and sounds of New York during the depression museums, flea-circuses, burlesque shows, Latin gigolos are genuine forgotten classics.
