

Failing to Plan is Planning to Fail

Do you know What steps to take to name a guardian for your children? How to make certain your loved ones get what you want them to have? How to set up a trust, a will, a living will, and durable power of attorney? Or, do you think estate planning is just too confusing and only for the wealthy? Florida estate planning attorney Mike Mastry's book is a clear and concise must-read that will help you understand what estate planning is, how it is accomplished and why it is vitally important to you and your loved-ones regardless of the size of your estate or your age. It is as important to those who are retired as it is to twenty-somethings, young parents or parents who will soon have an empty nest. FAILING TO PLAN is indeed PLANNING TO FAIL. Don't let it happen to you!
