

Investigating a Homicide Workbook

Follow a detective and his partner through the twists and turns of their real-life investigation that proves that nothing is ever as simple as it seems. This workbook covers all aspects of criminal investigation. Students participate in the investigative process with numerous discussion/short-answer questions. Designed for individual, group, or classroom use, the workbook combines the working scenario of an investigator with the academic requirements of cognitive and writing skills. This provocative homicide will provide your students with outstanding insight into the mind of an investigator with years of knowledge, while at the same time driving home the practical application of criminal investigation theory and concepts.
