

It Came from the 80s!: Interviews With 124 Cult Filmmakers

From their heyday in the 1950s and 1960s, B movies declined in popularity through the 1970s. As the big Hollywood studios began to make genre films with sky-high budgets, independent producers of low-budget movies couldn't compete in theaters. The sale of American International Pictures in 1979 and New World Pictures in 1983 marked the end of an era.
