

Moral Goodness: Common Sense And The Social Contract Of Toleration

Back of book paragraph Happy kids make happy adults; the goal of every parent and the highest example of humanity. Would that be enough in this life? A journey as all of us, in search of the original design to this time called life; with ties to Melvin Belli and Ferdinand Marcos. Getting out of the way of inheriting a powerful enemy is never possible; simply living life in general; athletics, women, education, leaving home to live with a guru, money, family intrigues, middle age and Mafia. After ending up with only the clothes I had on would it be possible to leave a positive legacy for humanity? Furthermore is the pen really mightier than the sword?
