

Felicias Journey (Ireland into Film)

Felicias Journey explores the 1999 film adaptation by Director, Atom Egoyan, of Irish writer William Trevors novel of 1994. Issues addressed include Hitchcockian influences, the sense of place in the visual discourse, and the characterization of the serial killer Hilditch, as constructed initially by Trevor and interpreted by Egoyan. Eschewing a crude fidelity model of adaptation, the study explores Egoyans screen version as a commentary on, or significant reworking of, the original book. In particular, Egoyans extension of the mother figure, through his creation of Gala, opens questions about memory, representation, and cinemas capacity as a reflexive medium which is a central feature of his film art.
