

Corporate Governance and Compliance Client Strategies: Leading Lawyers on Developing Compliance Procedures, Monitoring Governance Issues and Avoiding Problematic Situations (Inside the Minds)

Corporate Governance and Compliance Client Strategies is an authoritative, insider's perspective on best practices for counseling clients on corporate governance and compliance disputes. Featuring partners and chairs from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through the intricacies of developing effective compliance systems, enhancing corporate governance, and avoiding future problems. These top lawyers give tips on taking corrective action, defining risks and allocating resources, dealing with bad facts, using the internet to educate the public, understanding provisions to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and recognizing and taking advantage of relationships with the investment community. Additionally, these leaders reveal their strategies for counseling clients, establishing and achieving clients goals, and adding the most value for the client. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this ever-evolving field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. Garry Mathiason, Vice Chair, Littler Mendelson PC Developing and Implementing Effective Compliance Systems 2. Lois Herzeca, Partner, Fried, Frank, Harris,
