

Roger B Private Investigator

This book is about a private investigator that just so happens to always be in the wrong place at the right time. This Native American takes you from one adventure to the next. Since each chapter is a different story, you'll experience different situations as well as learn about the countries that he visits. You are also given actual historical facts and existing places that really captures the realistic view of the story. As you go on each case with Roger you'll find yourself wanting to know what happens next. Besides, action is his middle name
