

Individuals with Disabilities Education Act: Disproportionality Issues and Early Intervention Services (Disability and the Disabled-issues, Laws and Programs: Education in a Competitive and Globalizing World) (Paperback) - Common

The over-representation of minority students in special education continues to be a persistent and challenging issue in education. This is a complicated issue because it is often difficult to determine if a student is struggling in school because of a disability or, as some suggest, other factors such as poverty, limited English proficiency, or factors within the school environment, such as a lack...
