

Silent Partner

Beneath the surface of Stockholm's financial district known as the Golden Triangle lies a secret so sinister that certain individuals will go to any lengths to protect it. When a star fund manager with esteemed Swedish hedge fund group Camelot Asset Management unexpectedly commits suicide, his friend and colleague Marcus Ericsson is requested by his employers to investigate a series of fraudulent equities transactions preceding the suicide. The paper trail takes Marcus to Hong Kong, where he soon finds himself embroiled in a high-stakes cat and mouse game. Each step in the game is dictated by cryptic posthumous messages from his friend and the rules are set by people who will stop at nothing to win. Silent Partner, a top 10 financial thriller in Sweden, written by industry insider H.P. Molin, offers a unique glimpse into the dark side of the financial markets—a world where greed is considered a major competitive advantage and murder an all too easy way out of a crisis.
