

A Strange Brotherhood

Paul Connolly hides a dark secret. Following a vicious terrorist attack, Paul is arrested and interrogated by Inspector Harry Johnson, who is as desperate as the public at large for answers. Faced with the impossible decision of betraying his friends to save his own skin, he begins to tell his story...a story of friendship, betrayed illusions, of anguish and the limits of tolerance. Following a chance meeting, Paul is introduced to the enigmatic and ultimately murderous Justin Stevens, quickly becoming an integral part of Justin's circle of friends. Revelling in the sudden sense of belonging offered to him and sharing in the devastating trauma that is to follow. How far can they, and should they, go to avenge the death of a brother? And at what ultimate cost? In the end the answer lies with just one person, and seemingly only one man can tell the story, a story that Harry Johnson, in his rush to judgement, is ready to believe. The truth, however, is often somewhat different...
