

The Nurses of Steeple Street

Frankie Ford is honest and hardworking and has ambitions to become a ward sister at a prestigious London teaching hospital. But, hiding a secret, Frankie flees her comfortable home counties life to begin training as a district nurse in the poverty-stricken streets of Leeds. The first book in this brand new saga series from Donna Douglas will follow Frankie and her fellow trainee district nurses as they grapple with their own problems, and those of life in the Yorkshire mining town.
