

Before Versailles: A Novel of Louis XIV (Library Edition)

New York Times bestselling author Karleen Koehn offers another delightful historical novel that will transport you to another time and place. Before Versailles is the luscious, sweeping story of the young Louis XIV in his first year as king of France. Told in the alternating perspectives of the young king and his first love, the woman who would become his mistress, Karleen Koehn's newest weaves a portrait of court and country in turmoil with the legends of this colorful period in history, including that of the mysterious man in the iron mask.
