

The White Donkey: Terminal Lance

New York Times Best Seller A graphic novel of war and its aftermath. A powerful, compulsively pause-resisting, vivid, and moving tribute to the experience of war and PTSD, The White Donkey tells the story of Abe, a young marine recruit who experiences the ugly, pedestrian, and often meaningless side of military service in rural Iraq. He enlists in the hope of finding that missing something in his life but comes to find out that its not quite what he expected. Abe gets more than he bargained for when his journey takes him to the Middle East, in war-torn Iraq. This is a story about a marine written by a marine, and the print version was the first graphic novel about the war in Iraq from a veteran. The White Donkey explores the experience of being a marine as well as the challenges that veterans face upon their return home, and its raw power will leave you in awe. Full list of narrators includes John Glouchevich, Grace Lee, Benita Robledo, and Eric Lopez.
