

Demise II

This is the second book about the human caused apocalypse brought about by the destruction of carbon dioxide. The Period of Death was not over as the first book DEMISE ended and this story began. Our heroine Mandy struggled across the deserts of the southwest with Max, her adopted son, and her new baby Keith William. Will she survive and find her original daughter and son? Will Max and Keith William survive to find the colony at the Black Canyon? Will humanity survive? The few humans left are beginning the period known as Bad Times when the food, gasoline and medicine from modern civilization completely run out and the Period of Death continues. This book shows how the determination and ingenuity of mankind keeps them clinging to a tiny chance of survival.
