

The High Life: An Insiders View: San Francisco Characters of the 60s and 70s

The High Life is Mike Bergers vivid, first-person account of some of San Franciscos most famous characters from the 60s and 70s. The stories include his legal colleagues Nate Cohn, Jim MacInnis, Pat (Butch) Hallinan and some of their clients, including Sally Stanford, Mel Belli and the Peoples Temple Survivors. The major thread throughout his humorous anecdotes and reminiscences is Bergers 40-year devotion to the Delancey Street Foundation and his intimate friendship with founders John Maher and Mimi Silbert. As their first lawyer and a founding member of the Board, he is justifiably proud of the nations most successful and respected residential drug rehabilitation facility.
