The internet is awash with scammers and deceivers wanting you to dig deep and send them money for a reward... generally nothing! Tom Law examines several ways of identifying scammers and their stock in trade often received as unwanted emails. Some are obvious to most but others almost seem genuine accompanied with fake documents etc. to draw you in. The internet brides look alluring and often pretty... but what you get is often not what you see! A sometimes humorous exposure to the con artist with deadly intent, Tom Law provides sufficient warning to the cruel reality of the sophisticated take and artistry.
