

The Avro Arrow Manipulation: Murdering Medicare

Not for the first time, a shadowy US cadre had infiltrated Canadian politics and media to destroy a competing - and in many ways superior - achievement; this time their target is Canadas publicly funded, universal Medicare system. In 1959, a covert group code-named TAMPRR, acting on behalf of some American military officers and aircraft manufacturers, influenced the Canadian government to abruptly cancel its worlds best, Avro Arrow CF-105 fighter-interceptor aircraft program, with industry-devastating results. Fifty years later, in 2009, a more powerful TAMPRR, Inc., this time representing some major US healthcare and pharmaceutical corporations has enlisted some prominent Canadians to help undermine Canadas universal Medicare program and replace it with a far more expensive, for profit, US-style system. A highly placed whistle-blower reveals TAMPRRs activities to investigative reporter Ken Simpson of The New York Era. Simpson soon learns that he also has highly personal reasons to delve into its clandestine goings-on. The shocking facts he uncovers prompt some uniquely qualified, leading citizens to join in a race against time, TAMPRR, and special interests, to put real-time control of government conduct into the hands of the voters. AS AN AMERICAN BUSINESSMAN WHOSE COMPANY IS DEEPLY INVOLVED I MILITARY AIRCRAFT AND AEROSPACE PROJECTS, THE PREMIS OF HIS NOVEL MAKES A LOT OF SENSE TO ME. I WOULD BE DELIGHTED TO LEARN THAT AMERICANS WERE INVOLVED IN CLOSING DOWN THE AVRO ARROW PROGRAM.
