

die only if there is no other way (Do not read this stupid book Book 14)

Life often confronts us with difficult situations, but never - to deadlock. Which does not mean that the outcome is not otherwise required by us direction and certainly away from the cemetery. Although our human right is to look for the exit just in the desired direction and - according to my own motto - To die as a last resort. What can be done, for example, if you are in a hotel room fourth floor, where the only window to the street gapes cheerless pavement, spreading to fifteen meters below you, at your door insistently and roughly stamp people, to put it mildly, do not you think best? Rescue roofs which movie heroes are in the habit deftly jump to a happy ending, in case further. There is little chance to appear miraculous rope lowered into the fateful moment someone accomplice upstairs, because if he has an accomplice, it is not upstairs. You could really open the door and suddenly collapsed behind her to jump out quickly when strangers raid. Only It is also one of those film numbers in life never go. Remains you just wait to see if intruders will finally break the door. A really intense experience, but whose end easily can not be predicted because they really will break. Phone. Saving connection to the outside world. Pick it up with hope doomed quickly extinguished: wire is cut. This is the wrong phone connection that always involves wire and each wire can be cut by the ones that you think best. Unlike the radio link. Should of course you have one.
